To Whom It May Concern:

RGD Commercial has listed a number of our firm's assets in the Greater Vancouver area, and I have worked with Rob Desbrisay and the RGD team for over three years.

I have always been impressed with their performance. Even with the aggressive leasing programme that we put forth, they have never failed to exceed my expectations. Indeed, on more than one occasion, RGD has been able to secure leases for our buildings from Tenants that specifically excluded our properties from their initial search areas; their thoroughness and tenacity has been a great part of our success.

Performance aside, the firm provides additional innovative services which many of their competitors have still not yet adopted: a full-spectrum (traditional and web-based) marketing programme, CRIM property information system, and one of the industry's most extensive and customizable databases of listings and deals.

I have come to rely on their honest and creative advice and happily recommend RGD for your real estate marketing needs.

Sincerely,

Edmund K. Lee
Vice President
